

Cookies on Totally Dublin Website

Totally Partner uses cookies on the website, www.totallydublin.ie, a cookie is a very small text file that is placed on the visitor's computer by a web server. It functions as an ID card that can either be run as code or carry a virus. It is personal and can only be read by the server that put it there.

Totally Partner uses two types of cookies. One is a so called session cookie. This cookie is temporarily stored on your computer during the time that you are surfing www.totallystockholm.se so that the functions on the Website will know that you are on the Website and when you move between different pages.

The second type of cookie saves a file for a longer period of time on your computer. Totally Partner uses this cookie to see whether someone is a returning visitor or is using the site for the first time. Totally Partner will then target content to you in accordance to your previous visits to the Website.

It is possible to disable cookies, you can either close Totally Dublin's home page or set your web browser so that it blocks cookies. Note that you may not be able to use every function on this website if you block cookies. The way in which you can block the cookies will depend on what browser you are using.
